Required Bridge Courses

MBA 501 _____ (3) Survey of Quantitative Concepts and Strategies

This course introduces the student to a matrix of quantitative concepts used throughout the CU MBA and MMG programs. Students address statistical techniques that may be useful for analyzing quantitative data in a graduate research assignment or thesis. Students will also become familiar with managerial accounting principles that focus on the needs of the manager for financial information and timely reports. Students will also become familiar with managing financial resources through capital generation, asset planning, and asset management.

MBA 502 _____ (3) Survey of Qualitative Concepts and Strategies

This course provides students with a practical perspective towards understanding the evolution of business management and the process, concepts and strategies for getting things done through other people. Students will study Organizational Behavior (OB) and investigate the impact that individuals, groups, and structure have on behavior within an organization. Students will also focus on operations management and the planning and managing of the processes to produce and distribute products and services.
